Gentlemen

I received a few days Sale Catalogue of Coins to be sold July 7 & 8. I have been collecting Coins & Masonic Medals for Several years principally U.S. & Colonial Coins. I have examined the Catalogue carefully, and find Several I would like to get, but as these I want are very Scarce and command big prices I will have to be content if I succeed in purchasing. I want Nos 497. & 538 particularly. I enclose the list marked the numbers I want, and I leave it to your good judgement to purchase them for me. I have purchased at Sales for many years, through Mr L. H Low of New York, and never yet made a bid. I am always satisfied with what he gets for me, and the price paid. If you secure any lots for me dont Send them to me, as I expect to have her on 9 inst arriving in your City on 11. en route to Atlantic City as a Representative to the Imperial Council meeting there on 13 & 14 and expect to remain in your City Friday & Saturday 15 & 16. I can refer you to Wm A Sinn & Charles Cary. Masonic Temple. Philadelphia Pa. Hope I may have the pleasure of meeting you Even I remain

Respectfully yours
Richard Lambert
